FUCE/P/Ref. 47

To: Rectors of Lebanese universities Members of FUCE

Subject: Letter of Support on the war in Lebanon

Dear Rectors,

On behalf of the European Federation of Catholic Universities (FUCE), and in my capacity as President, I wish to express our deepest solidarity and heartfelt support to all our member universities in Lebanon during this time of grave uncertainty and suffering in the Middle East.

We are following with deep concern the events affecting your country and the broader region.

We are especially mindful of the challenges faced by your students, faculty, staff, and their families. Please know that the entire FUCE community stands beside you and is there to offer support.

Please accept our sincere thoughts for the safety of your communities and for a swift return to stability and peace.

With the assurance of my highest consideration, I remain
Respectfully yours,

Prof. Elena Beccalli
President, Federation of European Catholic Universities (FUCE)
